

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF MOBILE LIBRARIES 2026 IN LUXEMBOURG

Bibliothèque itinérante de la Province de Luxembourg, Belgique

Marilyn Duysens
Alain Dollé

- Territory: 4.459 km²
- Municipalities: 43
- Population: 296.000 Inhabitants

- Territory: 2.586 km²
- Municipalities: 102
- Population: 694.000 Inhabitants

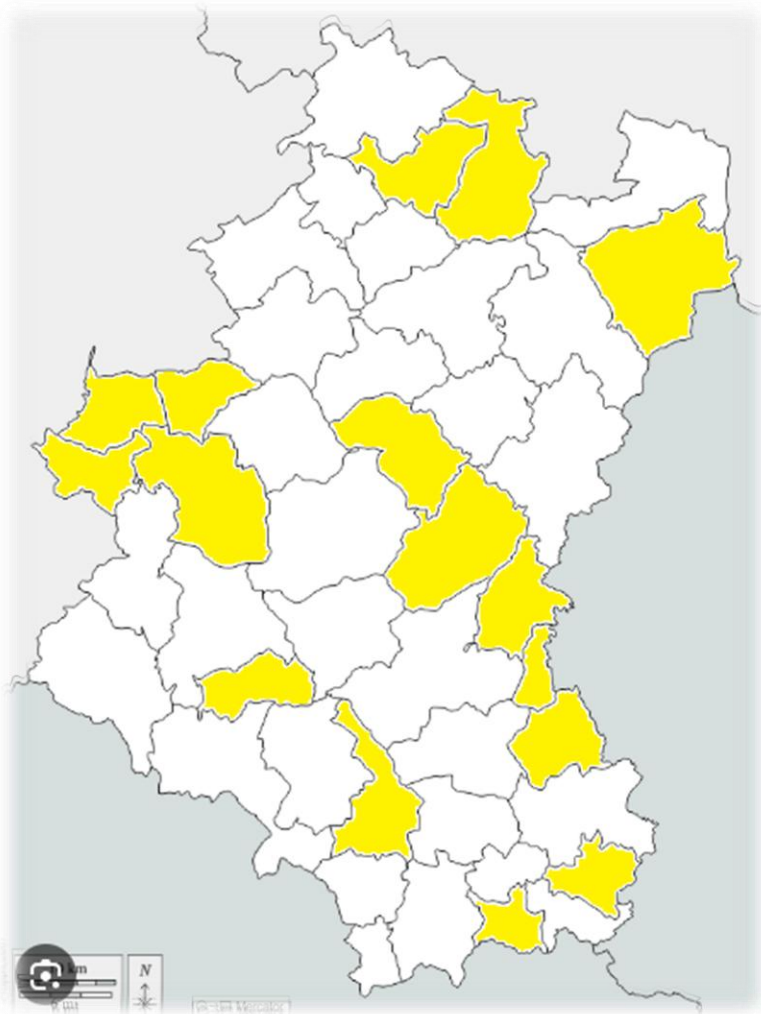

recognition

Plan de développement de la lecture:

Priorité 1 : Promote access to reading materials for populations geographically distant from cultural offerings

Priorité 2 : Encourage individual and/or collective capacity for expression and cultural participation

Step 1

Searches in territorial external studies

Key elements:

Access to culture

Participation in cultural activities

Ease to move to cultural venues

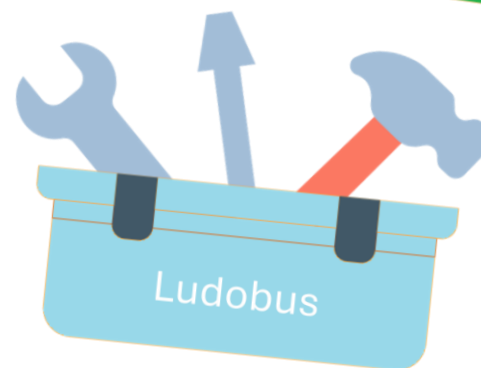

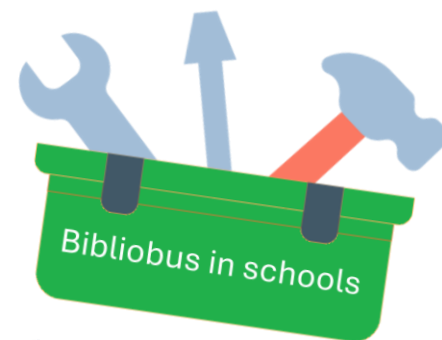

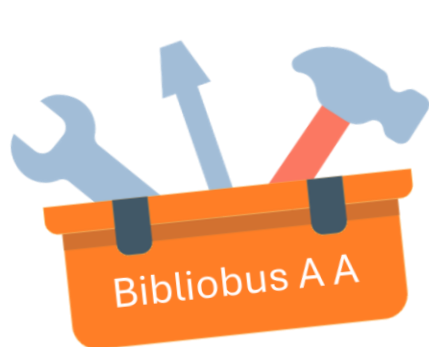

Results analysis

Step 2

Identify 17 municipalities with results below average

◆ Bibliothèques provinciales

How to translate vision into actions?

I think it is very enjoyable for the kids because they can choose by themselves.

« A compact vehicle for a huge library »

Team of 9 librarians
2 Biblibus B Driving Licence

Flexibility / parking
Capacity: 1500 Documents
Simplified vehicle maintenance
Low Fuel consumption

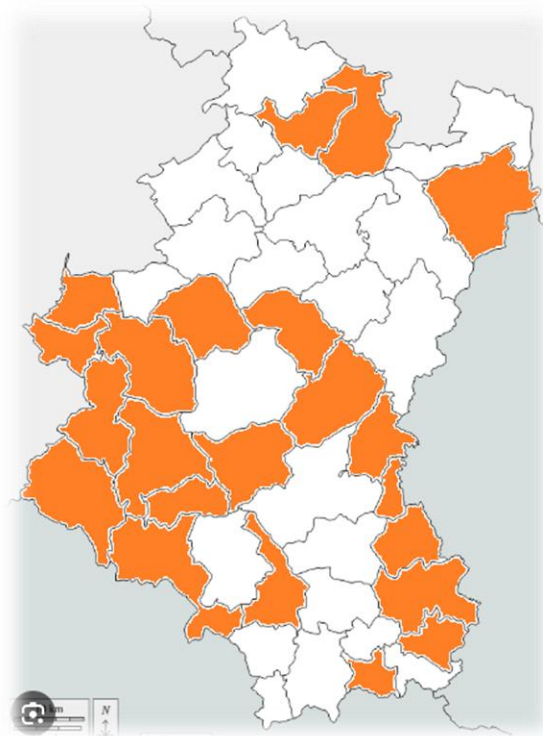

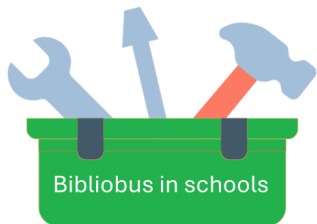

Bis 2019

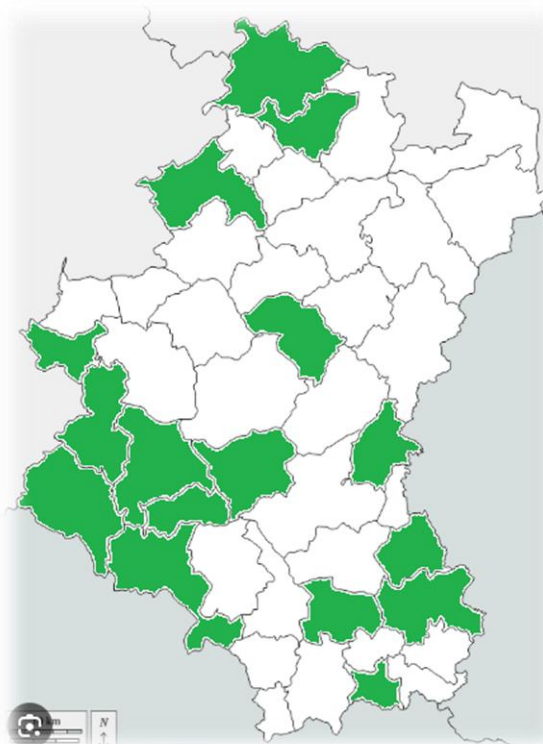

70 monthly stops
25000 loans en 2025, increasing

From September 2026
63 schools will be visited
260 classes – 5450 potential readers

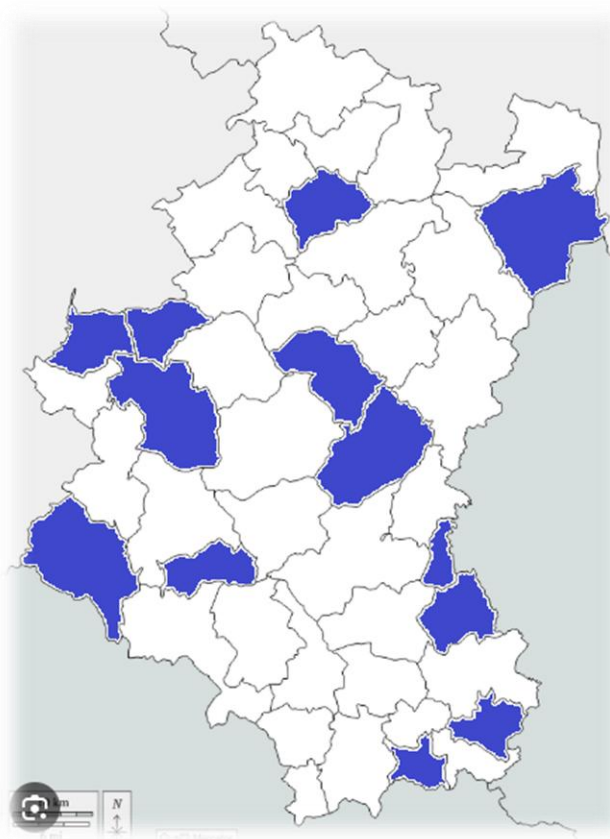

Seeing the miss who brings our books,

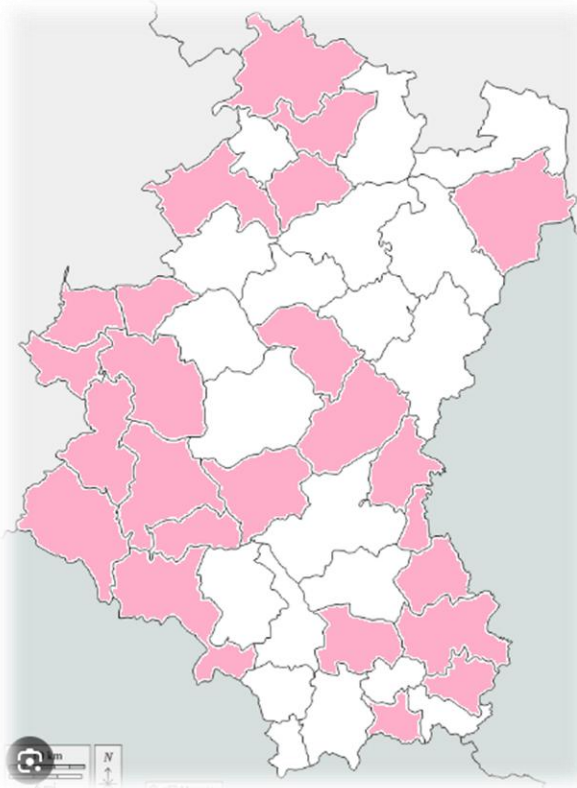

140 classes (2026) – 2940 potential young readers

There's always this excitement from the kids,

166 classes – 3500 kids potential « early readers »

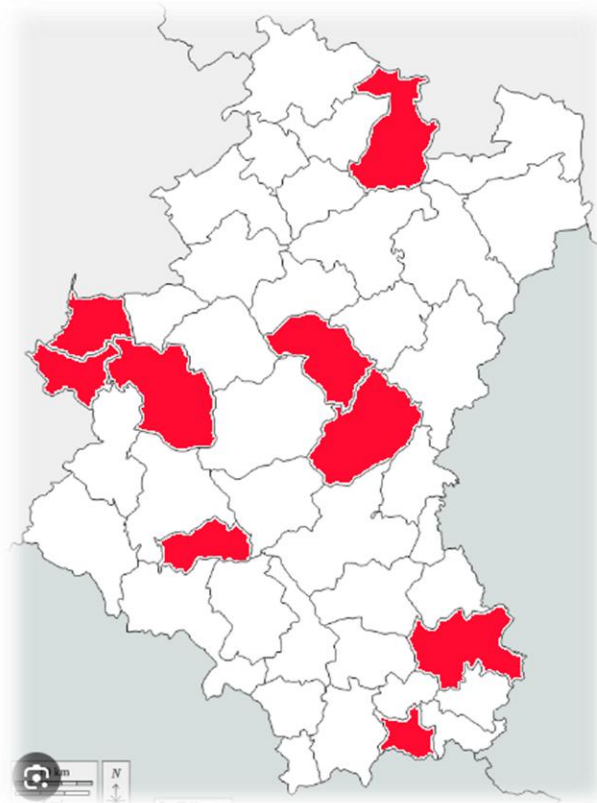

Before the activity, we prepare

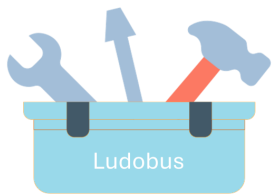

23 classes – 600 kids made aware

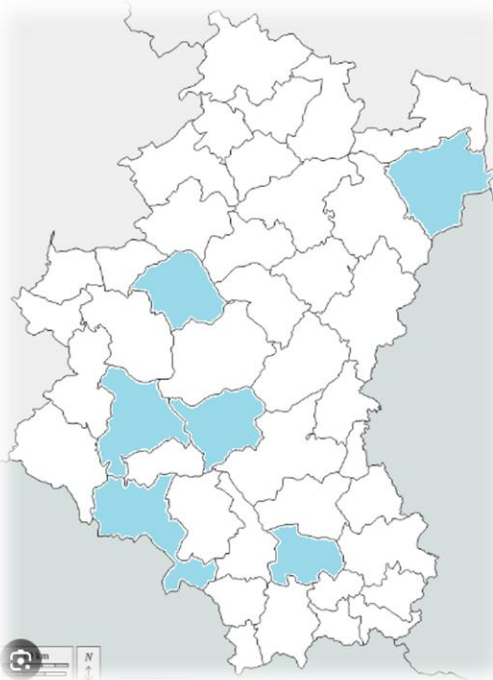

They are often curious.

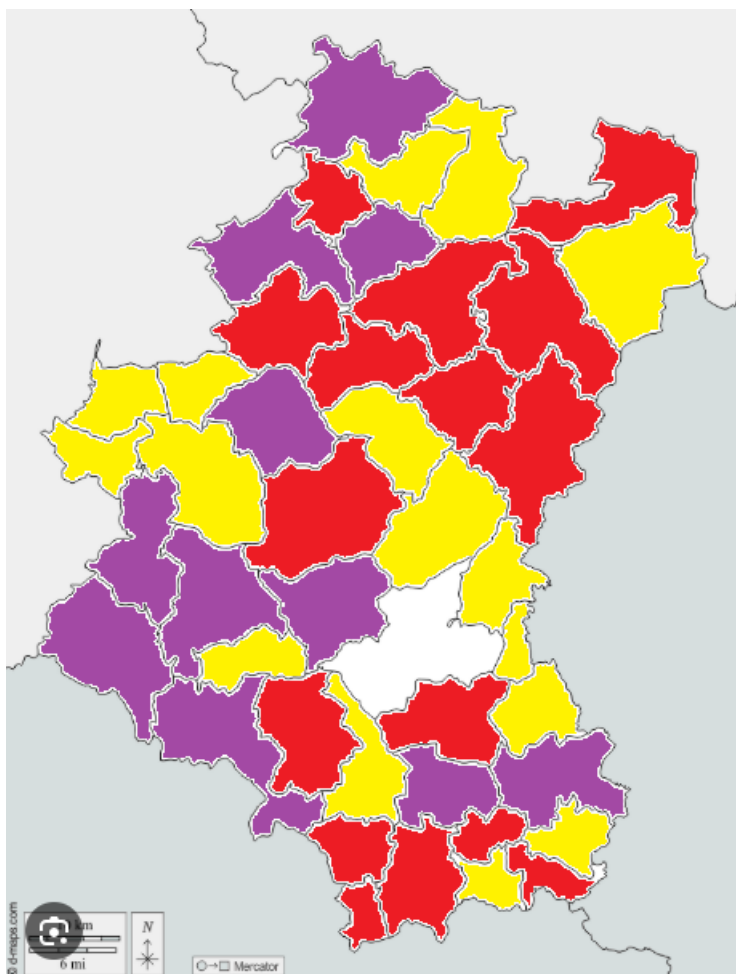

6 «2 hours» stops

Partnerships with local libraries

Mobile library

- 16 Prioritary municipalities
- 10 Municipalities with partnerships and own libraries

Sedentary libraries

- 16 Municipalities without partnership, with their own library

The territory we have to cover is more than 4500 km²

“Tools are just tools. They either help you or let you go, but it’s the people who matter. Innovation is about giving people the best tools possible to do extraordinary things.” — Steve Job

